

What is a good Wine?

We have been often asked "What is a good Wine?" and we often asked this same question to ourselves. The best answer we found is;
"A good wine is a wine one enjoys to drink, a wine one loves the taste of and which is, above all, a pleasure to drink". One does not have to be a Wine-Guru and 'Know all about Wines' to enjoy a decent glass of wine, nobody knows better than yourself what you enjoy the best... We came up with a new formula to make affordable some very good wines to you. These are premium quality wines, produced by recognised and honest wine makers, which are only rarely ordered in Restaurants due to their relatively high selling price. We and our suppliers have made a sincere effort (and calculation) to bring these wines down to a price level which is in average one third less than usual. We have excluded overpriced wines which are only expensive due to speculators or to their fame. But not just that, we have also made an effort to only choose those wines we really think are really special and there we're back to the question : "What is a good Wine?" Explore & Enjoy!
